DONALD E. GRAVES
Superintendent

To the Graduating Class of 1980:

Fifteen years ago the first serious planning of Southeastern began. Land was purchased. Plans were developed and in due time the first shovelful of earth was removed to make way for a brand new vocational school.

Thirteen years ago, in September of 1967, Southeastern was opened as a new high school for an incoming group of students. While the years have flown by, many significant things have happened during that period and you have shared such happenings. It is important that for several years Southeastern has been affecting the lives of many people. Students who started their careers at Southeastern thirteen years ago are now married, parents, people who have been part of the working world for years and, in some cases, successful owners of businesses.

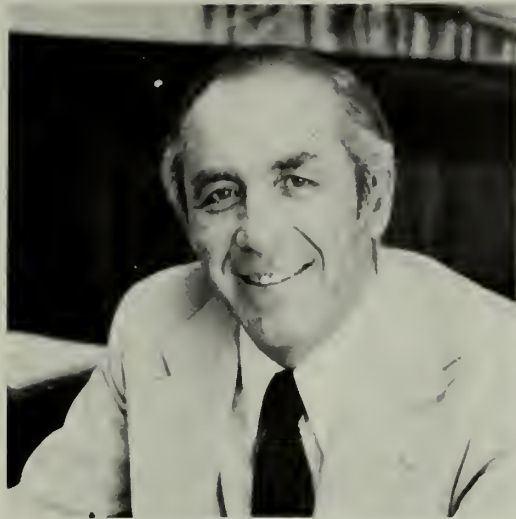

Just as they started a marvelous experience in vocational education when they opened the doors of Southeastern many years ago, you are carrying on the tradition of a growing, expanding Southeastern. You have contributed much to your school.

It is my sincere hope that the school has given much to you and, if so, will be a part of your cherished memories for the rest of your lives.

Best wishes for a successful future.

Very truly yours,

Donald E. Graves
Superintendent

ROBERT KONDRACKI
High School Principal

Four years ago you came to Southeastern from nine different communities. You were concerned that first year about what would the four years be like. Time passed quickly, but you found new friends and dedicated teachers who gave you an education that developed your talent to live, build and create.

Because you have received more from society, you must give more. Whatever your trade, its fulfillment will come only in the satisfaction that you have done it well, that you have done a "good job."

I congratulate you all with the fervent hope that success and happiness are your constant companions.

To every beginning there is an end.

To every end there is a new beginning.

We've learned many things along the way.

Seeing how we've grown with each trend.

Realizing finally the purpose of every tear.

Every dream we've dreamed and the laughter we've shared.

The struggles we've conquered and the problems we've faced.

All for reasons that now seem clear.

The long road ahead of us, unknown.

A new life waiting to be explored.

Finally leaning on the foundation we've laid.

Leaving behind the pathways we used to roam.

The bittersweet memories that will be with us forever.

Looking toward tomorrow and the challenge it holds.

Susan Harris
